Conversations about

Halloween & Grief

Halloween can be a fun time for children, teens and adults alike. Many people love to dress up in costumes, go to parties, and trick-or-treat for candy. Seasonal decorations ranging from colorful fall leaves to jack-o-lanterns to spooky scenes are popular and done in good fun. But this time of year can be very difficult for some, especially the newly bereaved.

Families have told us they feel bombarded at Halloween by the constant images of death: headstones, skeletons in caskets, and gory corpses. Some children and teens can become overwhelmed by the scary sights and sounds, especially if they are still learning the difference between reality and make-believe. For grieving children, teens and families, Halloween can be a painful trigger for the loss they have experienced.

If you are a parent or caregiver of a child or teen in grief, invite a conversation about this. Kids may be carrying fears or worries that they do not openly share. Being available to listen and support kids is one of the best things you can do for them!

Virtual Grief Support Groups for Parents or Guardians of Children & Teens RESUME

Ele's Place Ann Arbor offers ongoing peer support groups Monday through Thursday evenings, two weeks per month for grieving children and teens ages 3-18 via Zoom, at no cost to families.

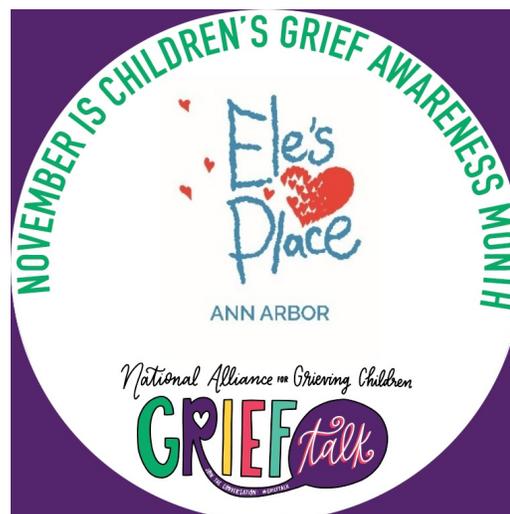

This week, our grief support groups for the parents or guardians of Ele's Place Ann Arbor children and teens RESUMED! We are grateful to be able to support adults in their grief so they can be more present with their child's/teen's grief. The adult groups are facilitated by Licensed Clinicians via Zoom.

If you have a grieving child or teen in your life, our Clinical Program Staff is available to help! Please call Ele's Place Ann Arbor at 734.929.6640 to learn more about our no cost support programs.

November is Children's Grief Awareness Month

Ele's Place Ann Arbor is proud to be a member of the National Alliance for Grieving Children together we are committed to giving grief a voice. Throughout November – in observance of Children's Grief Awareness Month – we will highlight GriefTalk topics weekly on the Ele's Place Ann Arbor Facebook and LinkedIn social media platforms.

The GriefTalk initiative is aimed at encouraging and supporting honest conversations around the topics of death and grief, and are intended to guide a caregiver as they navigate these important conversations with their child or teen.

2020 has been a difficult year for so many. There is grief everywhere, and many of the supports that existed are not in place, or access to support is limited. Together, we can support bereaved children and teens by giving grief a voice and advocating for supportive conversations.

The Ele's Place Ann Arbor GriefTalk conversation topics include:

- Talking to Children and Teens about Death and Dying
- Talking to a Child or Teen to Let them know Someone has Died
- Talking about End of Life Memorials and Rituals
- Talking about Grieving as a Family

Join us this November to encourage everyone to get comfortable with their GriefTalk.
