FEATURE

Inside a Peer Support Group in Grand Rapids

Rapid Growth · March 24, 2016

West Michigan

A Rapid Growth feature took readers inside the work of the Grand Rapids branch. Children could spend time with peers who understood what it was like when someone died. The article described activities in the groups and the volunteers the branch needed to keep those evenings going.

Original title: UIX: Children help each other heal, share and grow at Ele's Place

Open original source