COMMUNITY NEWS / ANN ARBOR

A $5,000 Grant to Expand Grief Support in Washtenaw County

The Chelsea Standard | December 17, 2009 | Newspaper brief

Coverage summary by Ele’s Place

The Chelsea Standard reported that a medical society foundation had awarded Ele’s Place a $5,000 grant to expand grief support in Washtenaw County and surrounding communities. The funding would help add two support groups.

The brief appeared two years after the Ann Arbor branch began meeting. It documents a local contribution tied to a specific expansion in the support available to area families.

Original title: Medical foundation aids Ele’s Place

Open the original source