COMMUNITY NEWS / CAPITAL REGION

From a Family Group to Facilitating for Others

WILX News 10 | April 22, 2025 | Television feature

Coverage summary by Ele’s Place

WILX spoke with Amanda Weigold about the support she and her daughter found at Ele’s Place after her husband died. Weigold later returned as a volunteer facilitator.

In the segment, she described helping younger children find words for what they are feeling. The report also explored what it meant for families to attend without an added financial burden.

Original title: Ele’s Place offers grieving children a place to heal at no cost

Open the original source